

Immediate Action Needed

For Students Who Have Not Completed the FAFSA

If you're graduating from high school this spring and considering college or technical education this fall, there's still time to apply for financial aid! Connect with the IL Student Assistance Commission at isac.org/connect for FREE assistance with the college planning and financial aid process—including help completing the FAFSA or Alternative Application for IL Financial Aid!

